Description:

Review "A unique book by a brilliantly witty, instantly loveable author... I couldn't put it down." -- Trashionista.com, Top 10 Reads of 2010

"[MOUSETRAPPED] is a fun travel memoir that will appeal to anyone who loves Disney, NASA and/or Starbucks. Catherine writes ... with a fresh, chatty voice. You end up sympathizing with Catherine's trying moments, laughing at her funny ones, and celebrating her special triumphs." --

AKindleinHongKong.blogspot.com

"[Catherine] writes with wit and humor about her time in Orlando. Thoroughly enjoyable and a great read!" --Talli Roland, author of THE HATING GAME

"[A] unique story that proves that dreams really do come true." --WanderlustandLipstick.com

"MOUSETRAPPED is an interesting, quirky tale with a conversationalist tone and a likeable narrator, packed with tales about space shuttle launches, religious theme parks and even a Bruce Willis story." --ChickLitClub.com

About the Author Writer, astronaut, skinny: CATHERINE RYAN HOWARD wouldn't mind being any of those things.

As well as working as a front desk agent in a Walt Disney World hotel (and then a housekeeping inspector in a Walt Disney World hotel, for a little bit), Catherine has administrated things in the Netherlands, cleaned things on a French campsite and stapled things together in various offices in her hometown of Cork, Ireland.

Frequently over-caffeinated, she currently divides her time between her desk and the couch.
